Javier Faus

Chairman

As a business executive and prominent investment professional, Mr. Faus has led numerous transactions in Real Estate, Private Equity and Venture Capital mostly in Spain and Latin America. He founded Meridia over 18 years ago, one of leading investment fund management firms in Spain. Mr. Faus chairs the Board of Directors of Meridia and all its Investment Committees. At present Meridia I is managing Meridia III, Meridia IV, Meridia V in Real Estate and Meridia Private Equity I.

Prior to founding Meridia, between 2001 and 2006 Mr. Faus was CEO and minority shareholder of HOVISA, a real estate company based in Barcelona and owner of Hotel Arts (operated by Ritz-Carlton). He also acted as Iberian Managing Partner for Patron Capital from 2003 to 2006. Prior to his investment career, Mr. Faus worked as M&A lawyer.

Mr. Faus is a member of the Board of Directors of Indukern, a chemical and pharmaceutical group. Between 2010 and 2014 he also served as Director of Colonial, one of the largest publicly traded real estate companies in Spain. At an institutional level, between the 2019 and 2022 period he served as President of Cercle d'Economia, a prominent civic association focused on economic, social and political progress. Between 2010 and 2015 he also served as Vice President at FC Barcelona. He is a member of the global Trilateral Commission.

Mr. Faus has won several awards including the 2002 Deal of the Year by the International Hotel Investment Forum and the SAHIC 2011 Award for Best Investor. Meridia received the Southern Europe Firm of the Year PERE Award in 2016. He is also an active business angel in the Spanish start up arena, having invested in various local innovative venture companies to date.

Mr. Faus is also involved in the academic sector, he is a member of the ESADE Alumni Executive Board and has collaborated with different professors at Harvard, IESE and ESADE Business Schools imparting case studies based on his own experience. He received a Law degree from Universidad Aut3noma de Barcelona, a Masters in International Law from Georgetown University and an MBA from ESADE Business School.

Cristina Badenes

Partner, Head of Investor Relations

Ms. Badenes has been at Meridia since its inception.

With 29 years of experience in the financial industry, she is Head of Investor Relations at Meridia. She is responsible for all existing client relationships globally. She leads fund formation and capital raising for the firm, whilst playing an integral role in promoting Meridia's franchise internationally.

Prior to joining Meridia, she was Executive Director in the Equity Research Department of UBS Investment Bank in London. Ms. Badenes was ranked second best analyst in the sector in Europe by the Thomson Extel Pan-European Survey. She was also selected as one of the UK's top-10 stock-pickers from among more than 1,000 financial analysts. She also worked in London as Vice President in the Equity Research Department of Dresdner Kleinwort. Ms. Badenes began her career in the Mergers & Acquisitions Department of JP Morgan and Salomon Brothers in London.

In 2024 she became Advisory Board Member at Juno House, Barcelona's first members club designed by and for women. Between 2021 and 2023, Ms. Badenes chaired the Spanish Committee of Level 20, a UK based not for profit organisation focused on increasing gender diversity in the European private equity industry.

She is included in Leaders League's ranking of top Spanish Private Equity professionals.

She graduated with honours in Economics and Business Administration from Universidad de Barcelona and holds an MBA from IESE Business School.

Victor Iborra

Partner, Real Estate

Mr. Iborra joined in March 2007. As Head of Investment, he coordinates investments/divestments within the RE practice at Meridia, including sourcing and screening of investment opportunities, overseeing the underwriting process and negotiation and execution of transactions, among others. Mr. Iborra supervises and mentors other professionals within the investment team at Meridia.

Prior to joining, he worked for two years at Unilever within the financial control department and spent one year at Grupo Abrisa in the Dominican Republic as an analyst within the Corporate Development Department. He also worked as an MBA intern in the Investment Banking Division at JP Morgan in London and at Amazon Spain (Mobile Initiatives Division). After his MBA, Mr. Iborra worked as Consultant at Zurich Insurance Company for six months focusing on cost reduction projects before re-joining Meridia in January 2014.

Mr. Iborra holds a degree with honours in Business Administration from Pompeu Fabra University and a degree in Actuarial Sciences from Universidad de Barcelona. He is an MBA graduate from London Business School.
